7.6 Any other relevant information the institute wishes to add

Institution has implemented very unique programme called “Amrutvarsha Mahotsav”(Paddy sidling transplantation) with tag line “ ond day for the farm for the help of farmers”. Under this scheme college students from pune city to visited in the village called vinzar where college is situated. Farmers from this area always face the scarcity of labour at the time of paddy transplanted. College students helped farmers directly in the process of transplantation of paddy sidlings. This year 2200 students from the city area participated in the programme. Total 220 acres of area come under cultivation. The biggest advantage of this programme is that the area which remains idle due to non-availability of labor is now come under cultivation.
