(ix)	Aid students to develop an understanding of our national heritage and national goals; and
(x)	Refrain from inciting students against other students, colleagues or administration.

III. TEACHERS AND COLLEAGUES

Teachers should:

(i)	Treat other members of the profession in the same manner as they themselves wish to be treated;
-----	---

(ii)	Speak respectfully of other teachers and render assistance for professional betterment;
(iii)	Refrain from lodging unsubstantiated allegations against colleagues to higher authorities; and
(iv)	Refrain from allowing considerations of caste, creed, religion, race or sex in their professional endeavour.

IV. TEACHERS AND AUTHORITIES:

Teachers should:

(i)	Discharge their professional responsibilities according to the existing rules and adhere to procedures and methods consistent with their profession in initiating steps through their own institutional bodies and/or professional organizations for change of any such rule detrimental to the professional interest;
(ii)	Refrain from undertaking any other employment and commitment including private tuition and coaching classes which are likely to interfere with their professional responsibilities;
(iii)	Co-operate in the formulation of policies of the institution by accepting various offices and discharge responsibilities which such offices may demand;
(iv)	Co-operate through their organizations in the formulation of policies of the other institutions and accept offices;
(v)	Co-operate with the authorities for the betterment of the institutions keeping in view the interest and in conformity with dignity of the profession;
(vi)	Should adhere to the conditions of contract;
(vii)	Give and expect due notice before a change of position is made; and
(viii)	Refrain from availing themselves of leave except on unavoidable grounds and as far as practicable with prior intimation, keeping in view their particular responsibility for completion of academic schedule.

V. TEACHERS AND NON-TEACHING STAFF:

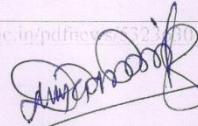

(i)	Teachers should treat the non-teaching staff as colleagues and equal partners in a cooperative undertaking, within every educational institution; and

Code of Conduct/Professional ethics/Guidelines

(i)	Recognize that education is a public service and strive to keep the public informed of the educational programmes which are being provided;
(ii)	Work to improve education in the community and strengthen the community's moral and intellectual life;
