Students Development Board, Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU), Pune Jointly Organised "One Day Workshop on Modi & Brahmi Script"

Report

Amruteshwar Arts, Commerce and Science College Vinzar's Students' Welfare Board and Department of History organized a "one day workshop on Modi and Brahmi Script" on Thursday, 11th January 2024. This workshop was sponsored by Board of Students' Welfare of Savitribai Phule Pune University.

From 10.30 am and onwards the students registered themselves for this workshop. Tea and Breakfast were served to the students. Total 81 number of students were enrolled for this workshop.

Formal inauguration function began at 11.30 am. This function was chaired by Hon. Principal Dr. Sanjeev Late. This function was attended by Head Students' welfare department Dr. Vijay Kadam, Head of the Department History and Professor Dr. Balasaheb Kendale, college NAAC co-ordinator Dr. Rahul Kambale and senior professor of college Dr. Mahadeo Dongare.

Inauguration ceremony was initiated by lightning of lamp and idol worship of goddess Sarswati by hands of Hon. Principal Dr. Sanjeev Late and other guests who were present on the dais. Dr. Mahadeo Dongare narrated the preface. He in his preface traced the history of works done by college's students' welfare department. He also narrated the various programs and workshop to be carried out by Students' welfare department of college. Dr. Rahul Kambale the NAAC, coordinator of the college emphasised on the skill development of the students in upcoming national education policy. He advised students to acquire as many skills as students can avail in their career.

Dr. Vijay Kadam narrated the performance of the students' welfare department of college. He also anchored this function. Dr. Balasaheb Kendale head department of history of the college advised students to remain attentive in workshop as this will enhance their skills in future in pursuing research career. He traced the history and importance of these scripts in historical studies.

Chief guest Mr. Saurabh Walgude (Department of Archology, Deccan College) in his speech, he explained the applications of 'Modi and Brahmi Script' in further historical research. Hon. principal Dr. Sanjeev Late in his presidential address cited many examples how many property issues were solved by Modi experts. In his speech he also highlighted various skills to be inculcated by students in their pursuit.

After the inauguration function, the first session of the workshop began at 12.30 pm. In first session the history of evolution of these scripts was illustrated. Alpha bates of these two scripts were taught by the Chief Guest Mr Sourabh Walgude.

The first session ended at 1.00 pm. A half an hour break was provided for lunch to the students. In post lunch session at 2.00 pm, the resource person Mr Sourabh Walgude demonstrated various versions of Modi and Brahmi Scripts. He taught students various writing methods of Modi. He also explained the evolution of Modi and Brahmi Scripts. He analysed difference among various timescale of Brahmi Script. He taught and demonstrated to students writing and reading these two scripts. In his more than two-hour lecture and demonstration on both these scripts he explained applications and importance of both these scripts. At the end of workshop students were able to write and read easy sentences of these both scripts. Some students also wrote their own name and showcased to the audience present in auditorium.

At 2.45 pm, in valedictory function participants expressed their thoughts. Students urged to design and run two-week courses for each of these scripts. In valedictory function resource person Mr Sourabh Walgude, the principal Dr. Sanjeev Late, as well as coordinator Dr. Vijay Kadam and Dr. Balasaheb Kendale Head of the Department of History thanked participants and the resource person. They promised participants that college in near future will design and run two-week courses for Modi and Brahmi scripts,
